Tuljaram Chaturchand College, Baramati

Choice Based Credit System Syllabus (2023 Pattern)
(As Per NEP 2020)

To be implemented from Academic Year 2024-2025

Title of the Programme: SY BA (Political Science)Preamble

AES's Tuljaram Chaturchand College has decided to change the syllabus of various faculties from June, 2023 by taking into consideration the guidelines and provisions given in the National Education Policy (NEP), 2020. The NEP envisions making education more holistic and effective and to lay emphasis on the integration of general (academic) education, vocational education and experiential learning. The NEP introduces holistic and multidisciplinary education that would help to develop intellectual, scientific, social, physical, emotional, ethical and moral capacities of the students. The NEP 2020 envisages flexible curricular structures and learning based outcomes for the development of the students. The credit structure and the courses framework provided in the NEP are nationally accepted and internationally comparable.

The rapid changes in science and technology and new approaches in different areas of Political Science and related subjects, Board of Studies in Political Science of Tuljaram Chaturchand College, Baramati - Pune has prepared the syllabus of SYBA Political Science Semester - IV under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) by following the guidelines of NEP 2020, LOCF(UGC), NCrf, NHEQF, Prof. R.D. Kulkarni's Report, GR of Gov. of Maharashtra dated 20th April and 16th May 2023 and Circular of SPPU, Pune dated 31st May 2023.

A degree in Political Science will provide students, the knowledge and skills to begin a variety of rewarding careers. Political scientists work as Political analysts, political campaign managers, International Relations Specialists, Legislative Aide, Academic Researcher/Professor, Non Profit Advocate, Intelligence Analyst, Political Consultant, Diplomat/Foreign Service Officer, Government Relations Specialist, Public Administrator, Political Journalists, Constitution expert, Policy analysts, and in a variety of other areas.

Justification for the mappingPO1 - Critical and Creative Thinking

Mapped COs: CO3 (Critical Analysis), CO4 (Application of Theories), CO6 (Comparative Analysis), CO8 (Critical Thinking)

Justification: These COs focus on developing critical thinking skills, which align with the ability to apply analytic thought, evaluate theories, and problematize issues as outlined in PO1.

PO2 - Communication Skill

Mapped COs: CO5 (Communication Skills)

Justification: CO5 specifically addresses expressing ideas clearly both in writing and orally, which directly correlates with effective communication skills highlighted in PO2.

PO3 - Multicultural Competence

Mapped COs: CO2 (Historical Context), CO6 (Comparative Analysis), CO7 (Ethical Considerations)

Justification: CO2 and CO6 involve understanding different political theories and perspectives, including those from various cultures. CO7 explores ethical implications which can vary across cultures, promoting awareness and respect for diversity as stated in PO3.

PO4 - Research Skills

Mapped COs: CO3 (Critical Analysis), CO4 (Application of Theories), CO7 (Ethical Considerations)

Justification: CO3 and CO4 require students to analyze theories and apply them to real-world situations, which involves research and inquiry skills. CO7 involves evaluating the ethical implications of theories, which requires research and critical thinking.

PO5 - Environmental awareness

Mapped COs: None directly mapped

Justification: While there isn't a direct mapping, aspects of environmental awareness can be integrated into various courses and assessments, encouraging students to apply political theories to environmental issues or consider ethical implications related to environmental policies.

PO6 - Problem-solving Abilities

Mapped COs: CO4 (Application of Theories), CO8 (Critical Thinking)

Justification: CO4 involves applying theories to real-world situations, which requires problem-solving skills. CO8 focuses on critical thinking, which is essential for identifying and addressing complex challenges.

PO7 - Collaboration and Teamwork

Mapped COs: None directly mapped

Justification: While not directly addressed in the listed COs, collaboration and teamwork can be fostered through group projects or discussions related to course materials, enhancing students' ability to work effectively in teams.

PO8 - Value inculcation

Mapped COs: CO7 (Ethical Considerations)

Justification: CO7 involves evaluating the ethical implications of political theories, which can include considerations of moral and ethical values as stated in PO8.

CO 4				3		3		3
CO 5					3
CO 6	3			3		3		3

Justification for the mapping

PO1: Research-Related Skills:

Justification COs: CO1 focuses on the analysis and comprehension of political systems, requiring students to demonstrate research skills in understanding the structures and dynamics of political systems at various levels. CO2 and CO3 also involve developing a sociological imagination and exploring political beliefs shaped by social institutions, requiring research-related skills.

PO2: Effective Citizenship and Ethics:

Justification COs: CO4 and CO5 involve examining concepts of power, authority, and legitimacy within political systems, requiring students to demonstrate an awareness of moral and ethical issues. CO8, which analyzes the relationship between the state and civil society, also aligns with the commitment to professional ethics and responsibility.

PO3: Social Competence:

Justification COs: CO2 emphasizes the development of sociological imagination, which involves expressing oneself clearly and precisely to understand individual experiences in broader political structures. CO8, focusing on the relationship between the state and civil society, requires effective communication skills in discussing citizen participation in political life.

PO4: Disciplinary Knowledge:

Justification COs: All COs contribute to the development of disciplinary knowledge in political science. From analyzing political systems (CO1) to understanding the impact of globalization (CO7), students gain a comprehensive understanding of political structures and processes.

PO5: Personal and Professional Competence:

Justification COs: CO6 involves exploring the relationship between political structures and social inequality, contributing to the development of strong work attitudes and professional skills needed to address societal issues. CO8 also emphasizes citizen participation in political life, fostering collaborative work in a team environment.

PO6: Self-directed and Life-long Learning:

Justification COs: CO1, CO2, and CO5 all require critical thinking and higher-order cognitive skills to analyze political systems, sociological imagination, and power dynamics. These skills contribute to the ability to engage in independent and lifelong learning.

PO7: Environment and Sustainability:

Justification COs: CO7 explicitly addresses the impact of globalization on political processes and institutions, demonstrating an understanding of the societal and environmental contexts in which political solutions operate.

PO8: Critical Thinking and Problem Solving:

Justification COs: All COs, from analyzing political systems (CO1) to exploring inequality (CO6) and understanding the role of social movements (CO5), contribute to the development of critical thinking skills needed to approach and propose feasible solutions to political problems.

CO 6								3		3
CO 7	3									3
CO 8

Justification for the mapping

PO1: Critical and Creative Thinking

Mapped to CO1, CO4, CO7

Justification: CO1 requires students to identify and articulate key political issues, which involves critical thinking. CO4 involves designing innovative solutions to political problems, requiring both critical and creative thinking. CO7 involves reflection and evaluation of project effectiveness, which is a critical analysis skill.

PO2: Communication Skills

Mapped to CO3, CO7

Justification: CO3 emphasizes engaging with community members and stakeholders, necessitating effective communication skills. CO7 requires clear articulation of project evaluations, which aligns with the PO's focus on presenting complex information concisely.

PO3: Multicultural Competence

Mapped to CO3, CO5

Justification: CO3 highlights collaboration with diverse community members, while CO5 involves integrating diverse perspectives, directly supporting the development of multicultural competence.

PO4: Research Skills

Mapped to CO1, CO2

Justification: CO1 involves identifying and researching political issues, while CO2 focuses on using tools like GIS for data analysis, both of which are core components of research skills.

PO5: Environmental Awareness

Mapped to CO4

Justification: Designing solutions to political problems may involve addressing environmental considerations, particularly in community projects focusing on sustainability.

PO6: Problem-Solving Abilities

Mapped to CO4, CO5

Justification: CO4 involves implementing solutions to political problems, and CO5 demonstrates integrating interdisciplinary approaches, both showcasing problem-solving abilities.

PO7: Collaboration and Teamwork

Mapped to CO3, CO5

Justification: CO3 requires facilitating discussions and collaboration with community stakeholders, while CO5 involves working in teams with individuals from various disciplines.

PO8: Value Inculcation

Mapped to CO6

Justification: CO6 focuses on applying ethical practices in community engagement, promoting values like respect and ethical responsibility, in alignment with PO8.

PO9: Digital and Technological Skills

Mapped to CO2

Justification: CO2 emphasizes using tools like GIS to analyze spatial data, directly supporting digital and technological skill development.

PO10: Community Engagement and Service

Mapped to CO3, CO6, CO7

Justification: CO3 and CO6 focus on active community involvement and ethical practices, while CO7 includes evaluating the community impact of projects, all of which align with promoting community engagement.

Topics and Learning Points

Unit 1: Planning and Preparation for CEP Work	Teaching Hours
1.1 Defining the CEP Topic	(15 L)
1.2 Scope of the Study Area
1.3 Identifying Key Research Questions for Field Study
1.4 Understanding the CEP Objectives
1.5 Ethical Considerations in CEP Work
1.6 Creating a CEP Plan
Unit 2: Fieldwork Data Collection	(25 L)
2.1 Selecting the Fieldwork Methods (Surveys, Interviews, Observations)
2.2 Collecting Primary Data from the Field
2.3 Recording and Organizing Field Data (Photographs, Maps, Notes)
2.4 Handling Challenges in Data Collection
2.5 Post-Fieldwork Data Compilation and Preliminary Analysis
Unit 3: CEP Report Preparation and Presentation	(20 L)
3.1 Analyzing Field Data (Quantitative and Qualitative Methods)
3.2 Structuring the CEP Report
3.3 Writing the Introduction and Study Area Description
3.4 Formulating Objectives and Hypothesis
3.5 Writing the Methodology and Data Analysis Sections
3.6 Discussing Results and Significance of Findings
3.7 Conclusion and Recommendations
3.8 Bibliography and References
3.9 Preparing for Oral Presentation of the Report
3.10 Submission of the Final CEP Report

Justification for the mapping

PO1: Critical and Creative Thinking

Mapped to CO1, CO4, CO7

Justification: CO1 requires students to identify and articulate key political issues, which involves critical thinking. CO4 involves designing innovative solutions to political problems, requiring both critical and creative thinking. CO7 involves reflection and evaluation of project effectiveness, which is a critical analysis skill.

PO2: Communication Skills

Mapped to CO3, CO7

Justification: CO3 emphasizes engaging with community members and stakeholders, necessitating effective communication skills. CO7 requires clear articulation of project evaluations, which aligns with the PO's focus on presenting complex information concisely.

PO3: Multicultural Competence

Mapped to CO3, CO5

Justification: CO3 highlights collaboration with diverse community members, while CO5 involves integrating diverse perspectives, directly supporting the development of multicultural competence.

PO4: Research Skills

Mapped to CO1, CO2

Justification: CO1 involves identifying and researching political issues, while CO2 focuses on using tools like GIS for data analysis, both of which are core components of research skills.

PO5: Environmental Awareness

Mapped to CO4

Justification: Designing solutions to political problems may involve addressing environmental considerations, particularly in community projects focusing on sustainability.

PO6: Problem-Solving Abilities

Mapped to CO4, CO5

Justification: CO4 involves implementing solutions to political problems, and CO5 demonstrates integrating interdisciplinary approaches, both showcasing problem-solving abilities.

PO7: Collaboration and Teamwork

Mapped to CO3, CO5

Justification: CO3 requires facilitating discussions and collaboration with community stakeholders, while CO5 involves working in teams with individuals from various disciplines.

PO8: Value Inculcation

Mapped to CO6

Justification: CO6 focuses on applying ethical practices in community engagement, promoting values like respect and ethical responsibility, in alignment with PO8.

PO9: Digital and Technological Skills

Mapped to CO2

Justification: CO2 emphasizes using tools like GIS to analyze spatial data, directly supporting digital and technological skill development.

PO10: Community Engagement and Service

Mapped to CO3, CO6, CO7

Justification: CO3 and CO6 focus on active community involvement and ethical practices, while CO7 includes evaluating the community impact of projects, all of which align with promoting community engagement.
