Guest Lecture on 'Opportunities and Challenges in Journalism'
Report

The Department of Media and Communication studies organized a Guest Lecture on 'Opportunities and Challenges in Journalism' for the students of B.Voc. Journalism and Mass Communication and M.Voc. Media Studies on Wednesday 1st February 2023. Senior Journalist Mr. Jatin Desai from Mumbai delivered the lecture. He has worked above 30 years in national news papers of different languages as journalist. He has given the speech and guidance on the subject of international relation, peace and conflict resolution between Pakistan, India Bangladesh, Shrilanka, Seriya, Iran, Japan.

He said in his lectures that students should keep the information about national and international affairs while studying journalism, read about them, analyze them and write about them. He guided about the skills that journalism students should have. He talked about where and how many opportunities are there in digital media for journalism and how students should prepare themselves to get them. He has also shared his experience about journalism on field. While quoting various renowned journalists, he advised the students that journalists should practice journalism with social responsibility and honesty.

The lecture was very informative and knowledgeable. Students got knowledge and tips about ethics of journalism and responsibility of journalist. Head of the department Asst. Prof. Rahul Chaudhari, HOD was the coordinator of the workshop. He felicitated the guests. Miss. Rutuja Agam did introduction of the guest. M.Voc. Media Studies student Suman Chormale gave the vote of thanks. We are very thankful to Dr. Chandrashekhar Murumkar, Principal, for giving such a great opportunity to conduct this Lecture.
