

Anekant Education Society's
Tuljaram Chaturchand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Baramati
(Autonomous)
Anti-ragging Committee
Annual Report 2023-24

The anti-ragging committee is constituted, nominated by the Principal, the Head of the College, consists of representatives of faculty wise members and non-teaching staff with two representatives from ladies.

The first meeting of Anti-ragging committee in the academic year 2023-24 was held on Wednesday, 27th September 2023. Complaint boxes were kept on various places in the college campus. Examination of complaints received time to time and keep the transparency in investigation. It was decided to maintain transparency throughout the investigation process to ensure fairness and accountability. All steps of the investigation will be documented, and relevant information will be shared with the concerned parties as appropriate. This approach aims to build trust and credibility in the handling of any issues. The commitment to transparency is intended to prevent bias and ensure that the process is thorough and with justice.

The second meeting of Anti-ragging committee in the academic year 2023-24 was held on Tuesday 20th February 2024. It was reported that no complaints related to ragging had been received throughout the year. The campus remained free of such incidents, and continued vigilance was emphasized to maintain a safe and respectful environment. It was decided that Anti-ragging committee kept strict vigilance by patrolling across the campus.

Principal
Tuljaram Chaturchand College
Baramati

Principal

Anekant Education Society's
Tuljaram Chaturchand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Baramati
(Autonomous)
Anti-ragging Committee
Annual Report 2022-23

The anti-ragging committee is constituted, nominated by the Principal, the Head of the College, consists of representatives of faculty wise members and non-teaching staff with two representatives from ladies.

The first meeting of Anti-ragging committee in the academic year 2022-23 was held on Wednesday, 20th September 2022. Dr. Gautam Jadhav was provided with information about various awareness programs, emphasizing the importance of collaboration for campus safety. It was decided to enhance coordination with the local police to ensure a quicker response to any incidents and to strengthen the overall security framework for the college. It was decided to display the helpline/contact number at various locations across the campus. This initiative aims to provide students, staff, and visitors with easy access to assistance in case of emergencies or urgent matters, ensuring a safer environment for all.

The first meeting of Anti-ragging committee in the academic year 2022-23 was held on Monday 27th February 2023. It was decided to regularly examine and address the complaints received over time. This approach aims to ensure that all concerns are promptly resolved, promoting a fair and responsive environment within the campus. No matter related to ragging was reported in the academic year 2022-23. It was decided that Anti-ragging committee kept strict vigilance by patrolling across the campus.

Principal

Anekant Education Society's
Tuljaram Chaturchand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Baramati
(Autonomous)
Anti-ragging Committee
Annual Report 2021-22

The anti-ragging committee is constituted, nominated by the Principal, the Head of the College, consists of representatives of faculty wise members and non-teaching staff with two representatives from ladies.

The first meeting in academic year 2021-22 of Anti-ragging committee was held on Saturday, 25th September 2021. Dr. Avinash Jagtap was provided with information on various preventive measures, including awareness programs aimed at promoting safety and well-being. Additionally, efforts to enhance coordination with local police were discussed to ensure prompt action and a stronger support network for preventing any incidents on campus.

The second meeting in academic year 2021-22 of Anti-ragging committee was held on Wednesday 23rd February 2022. Dr. Ranjana Nemade was provided with details about various preventive measures, including awareness programs aimed at promoting campus safety and preventing misconduct. Additionally, she was informed about the importance of enhancing coordination with local police to ensure a quick response to any potential issues and to strengthen overall campus security. It was suggested that an Anti-ragging program be conducted in the college to raise awareness and educate students on maintaining a safe and respectful environment. No matter related to ragging was reported in the academic year 2021-22. It was decided that Anti-ragging committee kept strict vigilance by patrolling across the campus.

Principal

Anekant Education Society's
Tuljaram Chaturchand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Baramati
(Autonomous)
Anti-ragging Committee
Annual Report 2020-21

The anti-ragging committee is constituted, nominated by the Principal, the Head of the College, consists of representatives of faculty wise members and non-teaching staff with two representatives from ladies. The committee members were introduced by the Chairman Principal Dr.Chandrashekhar Murumkar, highlighting their roles, expertise, and contributions. This fostered a collaborative atmosphere and set the tone for effective teamwork.

It was reported that due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the subsequent closure of campus, no complaints related to ragging had been received prior to this meeting. The absence of such reports was noted, emphasizing the importance of maintaining vigilance as the campus gradually reopens.

The second meeting of Anti-ragging committee in academic year 2020-21 was held on Thursday 18th February 2021. Dr. Chandrashekhar Murumkar has been actively overseeing updates on various awareness programs, including the Gender Equality and Women Empowerment Webinar. These programs, conducted in online mode, aimed to promote social awareness and foster inclusivity. It was reported that due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the closure of the campus, no complaints related to ragging were received. It was reported that due to COVID-19 no matter related to raging was received.

Principal

Anekant Education Society's
Tuljaram Chaturchand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Baramati
(Autonomous)
Anti-ragging Committee
Annual Report 2019-20

The anti-ragging committee is constituted, nominated by the Principal, the Head of the College, consists of representatives of faculty wise members and non-teaching staff with two representatives from ladies.

The first academic meeting of Anti-ragging committee was held on Monday, 23rd Sept 2019. Chairman Prin. Dr. Chandrashekhar Murumkar formally introduced the new committee members, highlighting their roles and contributions. This initiative fostered a sense of collaboration and inclusivity within the team. The committee reviewed any complaints related to ragging on campus and confirmed that no such incidents were reported. Emphasis was placed on maintaining a safe and supportive environment for all students.

The second academic meeting of Anti-ragging committee was held on 20th February 2020. The institution has implemented stringent measures to monitor and prevent ragging, including awareness programs, anti-ragging committees Regular inspections and anonymous reporting mechanisms are in place to ensure a safe and respectful campus environment. No matter related to ragging was reported in the academic year 2019-20. It was decided that Anti-ragging committee kept strict vigilance by patrolling across the campus.

Principal

