Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit Report (2023-24) for BBA Department

Respected Sir,

I am writing to inform you about the recent Academic Audit Report that was conducted for the BBA Department. The report revealed that the BBA Department received an overall score of 75.75 marks and a B++ grade. Additionally, the report included some valuable suggestions from the Academic Audit Expert Committee.

The committee suggested that the BBA Department should focus on increasing research activities, book publication activities, and consultancy in the form of corporate training. These suggestions are aimed at enhancing the quality of education and academic excellence within the department.

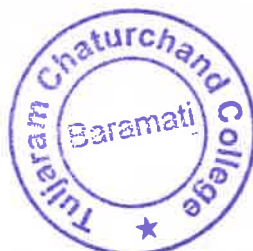

In response to the suggestions provided by the committee, I would like to outline the following action steps that have been taken:

- 1. Research Activities: The BBA Department will work towards fostering a research-oriented environment by encouraging faculty members and students to engage in research projects and collaborate with industry partners. This will not only enhance the academic reputation of the department but also contribute to the overall growth and development of the students.
- 2. Book Publication Activities: The department will support faculty members in publishing academic research papers and books in reputed journals and publications. This will help in disseminating knowledge and showcasing the expertise of the faculty members to a wider audience.
- 3. Consultancy in the Form of Corporate Training: The BBA Department will explore opportunities for providing consultancy services to corporate organizations through training programs and workshops. This will not only generate additional revenue for the department but also strengthen industry-academia linkages.

We assure you that the BBA Department is committed to implementing these suggestions and taking the necessary steps to enhance the academic quality and overall performance of the department. We will regularly monitor the progress of these initiatives and provide updates on the same.

Thank you for your continued support and guidance in improving the academic standards of the BBA Department.

Yours sincerely,

Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit 2023-2024

Dear Sir,

I am writing to inform you that we have recently received the Academic Audit Report for the academic year 2023-2024 (Ref. No. 204.1). Following its receipt, our department convened a meeting to deliberate on the feedback provided by the Audit Committee. During the audit meeting, it was noted by committee members that there are areas where improvements are needed. Specifically, our department has been identified as lacking in patent publication, consultancy services, research projects, alumni fund, and the organization of workshops.

In response to these findings, we have formulated a plan of action aimed at addressing these deficiencies to enhance our performance in the upcoming academic year. This includes pursuing research projects to secure funding, actively seeking consultancy opportunities from stakeholders by leveraging departmental resources, and initiating efforts to bolster the alumni fund through engagement with alumni.

We are committed to implementing the recommendations provided by the academic audit committee and are confident that through concerted efforts, we will achieve significant improvements in the identified areas.

Thank You.

Sincerely,

Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit 2023-2024

Dear Sir,

The Academic Audit Report for the year 2023-2024 (Ref. No. 204.1) has provided us with invaluable feedback. After a thorough discussion within the department, we have recognized several opportunities for growth, including patent publication, consultancy services, research projects, alumni funding, and organizing workshops.

This feedback serves as a catalyst for positive transformation. We have already initiated steps to:

- Encourage and support faculty in pursuing impactful research projects.
- Expand consultancy activities by showcasing our department's expertise to stakeholders.
- Strengthen alumni relations to enhance participation in the alumni fund.
- Plan and execute workshops that align with academic and professional development goals.

We view these initiatives as stepping stones toward elevating our department's contribution to academia and society. With determination and teamwork, we are confident of achieving measurable outcomes in the near future.

Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit 2023-2024

Dear Sir,

Following the Academic Audit conducted for the academic year 2023-2024 (Ref. No. 204.1), our department reviewed the observations and recommendations provided by the Audit Committee. A departmental meeting was held to discuss and address the identified areas for improvement, which include:

1. Patent publications.
2. Consultancy services.
3. Research projects and external funding.
4. Alumni engagement and contributions.
5. Organization of workshops.

Actions Taken by the Chemistry Department:

1. Patent Publications:

- o Faculty have been encouraged to identify innovative research outcomes with potential for patent filing, particularly in synthetic organic chemistry and method quantification.
- o A seminar on intellectual property rights (IPR) and patent filing was conducted to educate faculty members on the process.
- o Collaborative projects with industries are being explored to enhance innovation-driven research.

2. Consultancy Services:

- o Expertise in areas such as adsorption studies and chemical analysis methods has been catalogued and shared with potential industry partners.
- o Meetings with local industries were initiated to identify areas where consultancy services can be offered.
- o A proposal to establish a consultancy cell within the department is under consideration.

3. Research Projects:

- o Faculty members were guided on drafting proposals for funding agencies like DST, DBT, and UGC.
- o Workshops on grant writing were organized to improve the quality of research project proposals.

- Ongoing research in the department is being aligned to meet funding agency requirements.
- 4. Alumni Engagement:
 - An alumni meet was organized to strengthen connections and encourage contributions to departmental development.
 - Efforts to establish an alumni fund have begun, with alumni pledging support for departmental projects and student activities.
- 5. Workshops and Seminars:
 - The department has scheduled subject-specific workshops focusing on spectroscopic techniques, chromatography, and advanced analytical methods.
 - Interdisciplinary seminars were planned to promote knowledge sharing among students and researchers.

These initiatives are expected to:

- Increase patent filings by faculty.
- Strengthen industry-academia linkages through consultancy projects.
- Secure external funding for innovative research.
- Enhance alumni participation in department growth.
- Foster skill development through focused workshops and seminars.

We are committed to addressing the recommendations of the Internal Audit Committee and will continue to implement measures for sustained improvement in the upcoming academic year.

Sincerely,

Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit 2023-2024

Dear Sir,

Following the Academic Audit conducted for the academic year 2023-2024 (Ref. No. 204.1), our department carefully reviewed the feedback and recommendations provided by the Internal Audit Committee. A departmental meeting was convened to address the identified areas for improvement, which include:

1. Patent publications.
2. Consultancy services.
3. Research projects and external funding.
4. Alumni engagement and contributions.
5. Organization of workshops and seminars.

Actions Taken by the Zoology Department:

1. Patent Publications:

- o Faculty have been encouraged to explore research areas with patent potential, particularly in biodiversity studies, wildlife conservation, and environmental biotechnology.
- o A session on intellectual property rights (IPR) and patent application processes was conducted for faculty and researchers.
- o Collaborative research with institutions working in applied zoology was initiated to enhance innovation.

2. Consultancy Services:

- o Departmental expertise in areas such as wildlife management, aquaculture, and pest control was highlighted in outreach to local industries, NGOs, and government bodies.
- o Initial discussions with organizations focused on offering consultancy services for environmental impact assessments and biodiversity surveys.

3. Research Projects:

- o Faculty were guided in preparing research proposals for funding agencies such as DST, DBT, MoEFCC, and UGC.
- o Collaborative research opportunities with institutes specializing in zoological sciences were explored to strengthen proposals.
- o Workshops on proposal writing and funding strategies were organized.

4. Alumni Engagement:

- An alumni network was established to improve communication and encourage support for departmental initiatives.
- Plans for an alumni fund were introduced, with alumni invited to contribute towards research projects, student support, and infrastructure development.

5. Workshops and Seminars:

- The department organized workshops focusing on advanced techniques in molecular biology, taxonomy, and wildlife tracking technologies.
- An interdisciplinary seminar series was planned to address contemporary challenges in zoological research, such as climate change and species conservation.

These efforts aim to:

- Boost innovation through patent filings.
- Establish the department as a resource for consultancy services.
- Secure external funding for impactful research projects.
- Strengthen alumni contributions to departmental growth.
- Enhance student and faculty skills through targeted workshops and seminars.

We remain dedicated to implementing these measures and addressing the recommendations of the Internal Audit Committee to achieve continuous improvement in our academic and research endeavours.

Sincerely,

Dr. Sandip Chordiya

Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit 2023-2024

Dear Sir,

Following the Academic Audit conducted for the academic year 2023-2024 (Ref. No. 204.1), our department has thoroughly reviewed the feedback and recommendations provided by the Audit Committee. A departmental meeting was held to discuss the identified areas for improvement, which include:

1. Patent publications.
2. Consultancy services.
3. Research projects and external funding.
4. Alumni engagement and contributions.
5. Organization of workshops and seminars.

Actions Taken by the Mathematics Department:

1. Patent Publications:

- Faculty have been encouraged to explore mathematical modelling and algorithmic innovations with patent potential, particularly in areas such as cryptography, data analysis, and optimization techniques.
- A seminar on intellectual property rights (IPR) and patent filing procedures was conducted for faculty and students.
- Collaborative research with industries involved in applied mathematics and computational techniques is being explored.

2. Consultancy Services:

- Expertise in applied mathematics, statistical modelling, and operations research has been catalogued and made available to local industries, IT companies, and government agencies.
- Initial discussions have been initiated with organizations to offer consultancy services related to data analysis, mathematical modelling, and algorithm development.
- A dedicated consultancy cell is being set up to streamline these opportunities.

3. Research Projects:

- Faculty members have been encouraged to pursue research projects by applying for funding from agencies like DST, UGC, and SERB.

- Collaborative research initiatives with other institutions specializing in pure and applied mathematics are being explored.
 - Workshops on proposal writing, research methodology, and securing grants were organized for faculty and students.
- 4. Alumni Engagement:
- A structured alumni engagement program was launched to reconnect with former students and foster ongoing relationships.
 - Alumni have been invited to contribute to the department by offering financial support for research projects, student scholarships, and departmental events.
 - Plans to establish an alumni fund are underway to help support research and infrastructure development.
- 5. Workshops and Seminars:
- The department has organized workshops on advanced mathematical topics such as machine learning, computational mathematics, and data science.
 - A series of seminars on recent developments in applied mathematics and its interdisciplinary applications is being planned.
 - Collaboration with external experts is being sought to enhance the variety and scope of topics covered in these events.

These initiatives aim to:

- Encourage patentable innovations in mathematical modeling and algorithm development.
- Strengthen the department's presence in consultancy services for industries and research institutions.
- Increase funding and recognition through collaborative and individual research projects.
- Build a strong alumni network that supports departmental activities and student success.
- Promote continuous learning and academic development through specialized workshops and seminars.

We are committed to implementing these measures in alignment with the recommendations of the Internal Audit Committee and will monitor progress regularly to ensure sustained improvements.

Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit 2023-2024

Dear Sir,

Following the Academic Audit conducted for the academic year 2023-2024 (Ref. No. 204.1), the Commerce Department has reviewed the feedback and recommendations provided by the Audit Committee. A departmental meeting was convened to discuss the identified areas for improvement, which include:

1. Patent publications.
2. Consultancy services.
3. Research projects and external funding.
4. Alumni engagement and contributions.
5. Organization of workshops and seminars.

Actions Taken by the Commerce Department:

1. Patent Publications:

- While patents are not traditionally associated with the commerce field, faculty have been encouraged to explore innovations in areas such as business models, financial technologies, and digital commerce that may have intellectual property potential.
- A session on intellectual property rights (IPR) was conducted to raise awareness among faculty and students about how to protect business and financial innovations.

2. Consultancy Services:

- The department has highlighted its expertise in areas like financial management, marketing, business analytics, and taxation to offer consultancy services to local businesses and organizations.
- A task force has been established to reach out to industries and start-ups to explore potential consultancy projects in areas like market research, financial planning, and strategic management.
- Plans to establish a formal consultancy cell within the department are underway.

3. Research Projects:

- Faculty have been encouraged to prepare and submit research proposals to funding bodies such as UGC, ICSSR, and AICTE, focusing on areas like business ethics, financial inclusion, and digital marketing.

- Collaborative research with other institutions and industry partners is being pursued to increase research output and secure external funding.
- Workshops on writing effective research proposals and securing research grants have been organized for both faculty and students.

4. Alumni Engagement:

- An alumni network has been established to strengthen ties with former students and encourage their participation in departmental activities.
- Alumni have been invited to contribute to the department through guest lectures, mentorship programs, and support for research activities and scholarships.
- Plans to create an alumni fund to support student scholarships and research projects are currently being discussed.

5. Workshops and Seminars:

- The department has organized workshops on contemporary topics such as digital marketing, data analytics in business, entrepreneurship, and financial literacy.
- A seminar series focused on industry trends in business, e-commerce, and financial markets is being developed to expose students to the latest developments in the field.
- Partnerships with industry experts and academic leaders are being explored to enhance the quality and diversity of these workshops and seminars.

Outcomes Expected:

These initiatives aim to:

- Promote innovation and intellectual property awareness in the field of business and commerce.
- Build strong industry linkages through consultancy services.
- Secure funding and increase the department's research profile.
- Strengthen alumni engagement and encourage their active support for the department.
- Enhance student and faculty learning through skill-building workshops and industry-relevant seminars.

We are committed to implementing these measures to address the Internal Audit Committee's recommendations and look forward to continuous improvement in the department's academic and professional achievements.

Sincerely,

Dr. Janardhan Pawar

Subject: Action Taken Report on Academic Audit 2023-2024

Dear Sir,

I am writing to inform you that, after receiving the feedback from the Academic Audit for the academic year 2023-2024, the Marathi Department held a meeting to review and discuss the observations and recommendations provided. The following areas were identified as requiring attention:

1. Patent publications
2. Consultancy services
3. Research projects and external funding
4. Alumni engagement and contributions
5. Organization of workshops and seminars

Based on the committee's feedback, we have developed an action plan to address these areas. The details of the actions taken are outlined below:

1. Patent Publications

- While the Marathi Department does not traditionally focus on patentable innovations, we are exploring the development of digital tools and linguistic frameworks related to Marathi literature and culture that could be protected under intellectual property laws.
- To raise awareness about intellectual property rights (IPR), an IPR awareness session was held for faculty and students, focusing on how to protect innovations in language research and digital content creation.

2. Consultancy Services

- We have identified opportunities to offer consultancy services in areas such as creative writing, translation, and Marathi linguistic training.
- Efforts are being made to collaborate with publishing houses, NGOs, and educational institutions for projects that focus on the promotion of Marathi language and culture.
- A formal proposal is being developed to establish a dedicated consultancy cell within the department.

3. Research Projects and External Funding

- Faculty members have been encouraged to submit research proposals to funding agencies like UGC, ICSSR, and SahityaAkademi. Research topics include contemporary Marathi literature, the preservation of oral traditions, and the impact of globalization on regional languages.

- The department is exploring collaborative research opportunities with other academic institutions and cultural organizations to increase research output and secure external funding.
- A workshop on research proposal writing and securing funding was conducted for the faculty.

4. Alumni Engagement and Contributions

- The department has established an alumni network to facilitate ongoing engagement and strengthen ties with former students who are actively contributing to Marathi literature, journalism, and academia.
- Alumni have been invited to participate in guest lectures, mentorship programs, and cultural events organized by the department.
- We are in the process of setting up an alumni fund to support literary projects, scholarships, and research activities in the department.

5. Organization of Workshops and Seminars

- The department has organized workshops on Marathi literature, creative writing, and translation techniques to enrich student learning and provide skill-building opportunities.
- A seminar series on the influence of Marathi literature on theater, cinema, and other art forms is being planned.
- Collaborations with Marathi authors, literary organizations, and cultural institutions are being pursued to enhance the quality and diversity of these events.

Expected Outcomes and Future Steps

The actions taken are expected to result in the following:

- Enhanced visibility and protection of innovative research through IPR.
- Increased consultancy opportunities within the literary and cultural sectors.
- Secured funding for research projects and greater academic output.
- Strengthened alumni engagement and support for departmental initiatives.
- Improved academic and extracurricular experiences for students through workshops and seminars.

We remain committed to implementing these actions in alignment with the Internal Audit Committee's recommendations and are confident that these steps will contribute to the overall development of the department. Periodic reviews will be conducted to assess the progress and effectiveness of these initiatives.

Thank you for your guidance and support.

Sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Seema Naik-Gosavi
Head,
Department of Marathi
