'Lighting for Video Production' Two Days
Workshop Report

The Department of Media and Communication studies organized a two days workshop on 'Lighting for Video Production' on 29th to 30th March 2022. Mr. Mangesh Gunaware, Videographer, Photographer, Editor, MG Photography, Alumni of Media and Communication Department, Baramati, conducted the workshop. This workshop was arranged for both B.Voc. and M.Voc. students.

The workshop was divided into two sessions of 3 hrs on both days. First session started at 10.30 am. and concluded at 1.30 pm. Second session started at 2.00 pm. and concluded at 5.00 pm. On the first day of the workshop, Mr. Mangesh Gunaware gave information regarding different types of photography and how lighting is important in those to make the output better. He gave examples with his own work. In the second session of the first day, he introduced the equipment of light as well as gave a practical demo of this equipment and its use. On the Second day of the workshop, students were divided into multiple groups and were given assignments of lighting outdoors and experiencing actual shoot situations. Mr. Mangesh Gunaware depicted how to manage natural lighting in different outdoor locations and in different indoor locations (studio). Students experienced and gained practical knowledge through these assignments.

On the last day of the workshop Mr. Mangesh Gunaware taught students about the editing software and its necessary tools. He explained the tools with references and also made students practice on the software.

This workshop was very useful to the students for understanding the techniques of lighting, its necessary equipment, different kinds of lighting sources and understanding the required output for any audio-visual productions. Total 60 students were present for the workshop. Ranjit Pandit Sir, Head of Department of Media and Communication Studies inaugurated the workshop. TY B.Voc student Ashish Sharma concluded the session with a vote of thanks. Asst. Prof. Rahul Chaudhari was the coordinator of the workshop. We are very thankful to Dr. Chandrashekar Murumkar, Principal, Dr. Bhagwan Mali, Coordinator, student welfare committee for giving such a great opportunity to conduct this workshop. This workshop will be helpful to students for their video production projects and television news projects, for their future career.
