Dept. of Psychology in association with the Rashtriya Uchchattar Shiksha Abhiyan
(RUSA)

Date: 25th February 2022

A one day online workshop on “Basic Counseling Skills” was jointly organized by Dept. of Psychology in association with the Rashtriya Uchchattar Shiksha Abhiyan (RUSA) at 25th February 2022. The resource person for the workshop was Mr. Kalidas Patil, an eminent counselor, psychologist and founder of Shushrusha Guidance, Counseling and Training Institute, Islampur. This one day workshop was scheduled from 9.30 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. The workshop was attended by 45 Students (33 Female and 12 Male) from F.Y., S.Y.; T.Y.B.A. and M.A. (Psychology). The workshop was started at 09.30 a.m. in the morning. Dr. Seema Gosavi Madam (Vice-Principal, T. C. College) was the chairperson of the program. The workshop started with the inaugural address of Dr. Shinde V. B. (HOD, Dept. of Psychology) with welcomed of the distinguished guests, Dr. Gosavi madam, faculty members and the participants. He explains the objectives and gave the overview of the workshop and emphasizing the need of having professionally trained counselors in today’s society. Dr. Shinde stated that this workshop will help the participants to learn the basic skills required to become a professional counselor. Miss. Vishranti and Miss Jui students from M.A. II were hosted the program.

The first session of the workshop was scheduled from 10.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m. on the topic “Introduction of training with Identifying Self.” Mr. Patil explains importance of understanding self that are critical for good counselors and should be improved upon continually. The second session scheduled from 11 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. on the topic “Role of a Counselor for healthy society.” This session aimed at making the audience aware of the importance of role of counselor for making healthy society. Also the importance of code of ethics which provide professional standards for counselors with the purpose of protecting the dignity and well-being of clients. Thus, counselors have the foundational knowledge to work in the field confidently and ethically. Mr. Patil interactively goes through the session. This made sure that everyone gets a clear perspective for the long run. The Third and last session topic was "Basic Counseling Skills" which was scheduled from 1.45 p.m. to 05.00 p.m she extensively discussed about the Empathy and related Counseling skills and how it is important to develop skills in counseling so that counselor can effectively help their clients.

The Resource person for the workshop was immensely experienced and professional. The interactions made effective by giving some activities to students in all the sessions. He showed Short Videos, presentations which were well organized. He shared his experiences as a counselor and a psychologist which was very informative and interactive. As the new career options emerge, new skills are demanded in the field of psychology and a student needs to be aware of these advancements. This workshop here acted as a future path for the students that can be made aware of the changes in advance so as to acquired these skills accordingly and be prepared for the upcoming changes. Discussing the do's and don'ts of the counseling process Mr. Patil concluded the workshop. All the sessions were enjoyed thoroughly by the participants and they posted a lot of questions as a result of that the sessions had witnessed a lot of interaction. Dr. Shinde expressed their satisfaction on successful conduct of the workshop and complimented all the participants for their active presence and interaction. Dr. Jagtap R. D. offered vote of thanks to Mr. Patil. He further stated that this workshop will help the participants to acquire an understanding of professional and ethical issues in counseling. Dr. Jagtap also extended warm thanks to the Principal Dr. C. V. Murumkar, Dr. Gosavi Madam, Dr. Ajit Telve (Cordinator, RUSA), faculty members and students.
