Workshop on "Gas Safety"

A workshop was arranged on 27th sep 2021, on the subject of 'Gas Safety' along with safe working methods in the science laboratories. The 22 faculty members and 8 support staff from Chemistry, Botany, Zoology and Microbiology departments have participated in it.

In this workshop the LPG supplier from Pune, gave a demonstration regarding the safety procedures and safe protective methods for the use of LPG cylinder in science laboratories. They also informed about the precautions to be taken if any gas leakage or accident occurs.

This activity is very useful to faculty member and support staff working in science laboratories.
