Office Memorandum

Sub: FSSAI prescribed fee structure for the FoSTaC courses

In order to bring uniformity in the course fees being charged by the Training Partners, FSSAI is hereby notifying a range of fees to be charged for various courses under FoSTaC programme. Considering the current market rates for conducting training in either offline or online mode, FSSAI has decided a minimum and maximum limit of fees for each of the courses. Accordingly, following rates are being prescribed.

a) Rates for offline courses

S. No.	Course*	Prescribed limit	Participants limit & duration
1	FSS Course for Street food vendors	INR 500-700 + GST per participant	Maximum 50 participants per batch & duration of each course is of 4 hours.
2	Four Basic courses other than Street food vendors	INR 700-1200 + GST per participant	Maximum 40 participants per batch & duration is of 8 hours.
3	Four Advanced courses	INR 1500-2000 + GST per participant	Maximum 40 participants per batch & duration is of 12 hours.
4	Nine special course other than Milk and Milk products	INR 2000-2500 + GST per participant	Maximum 40 participants per batch & duration is of 12 hours.
5	Special course on Milk and Milk products	INR 2500-3000 + GST per participant	Maximum 40 participants per batch & duration is of 12 hours.

* All these course includes COVID awareness programme also.

b) Rates for online courses

In case of the online training programmes, the course fee shall be 25% lesser than Prescribed limit mentioned in above table for each of the courses.

2. The prescribed limit mentioned above includes the expenditure for trainee mobilization, venue for offline training programme or online training platform, refreshments in case of offline classes, Trainer's fee, Assessor's fee and admin cost (handling of portal, sharing of training material, printing of certificates etc.)

3. Moreover, FSSAI has also started an initiative to sponsor training of petty food businesses under the Basic Level FoSTaC programme. For this purpose, FSSAI is signing
