Report on Online E-Content Development Workshop

During the COVID-19 pandemic, when the education sector faced unprecedented challenges, I have organized an Online Faculty Development Program (FDP) on E-Content Development. This initiative aimed to equip faculty members with essential digital teaching tools and techniques to ensure seamless online education.

Objectives

- To train faculty members in creating and managing e-content effectively.
- To enhance digital teaching methodologies through online platforms.
- To provide hands-on experience with tools such as YouTube, Google Classroom, Google Forms, and live session management.

Workshop Schedule & Topics Covered

The FDP was conducted over five days with the following sessions:

Day Topic

Day 1 Creating Videos and Uploading on YouTube

Day 2 Use of Learning Management Systems (Google Classroom)

Day 3 Google Forms for Online Assessments

Day 4 Conducting Live Online Sessions Effectively

Day 5 Audio-Video Editing Tools for Quality Content

Participants & Impact

A total of 150 faculty members actively participated in the FDP and benefited from the sessions. The program provided them with essential skills to enhance online teaching during the pandemic. The interactive sessions and practical demonstrations enabled participants to implement these tools in their teaching methods effectively.

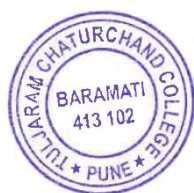

Conclusion

The Online E-Content Development Workshop successfully met its objectives and provided faculty members with valuable insights and hands-on training in digital teaching tools. The workshop received positive feedback, with participants appreciating the relevance and practicality of the topics covered.

This initiative was a significant step towards improving online education delivery, ensuring uninterrupted learning during the pandemic.
