SOLIDARITY AND EMPOWERMENT

Department of Media and Communication Studies, Tuljaram Chaturchand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Baramati is hosting an awareness programme on the circumstances of Nirbhaya Day on 20th December 2022. We are honored and wish to invite you as our chief guest for the respective initiative that will take place at our college on 20th December 2022. It will be a privilege to have you at the event. We hope that you will honor us with your presence. We are expecting your timely confirmation and talking if there are any queries or questions.

The students of Media and Communication Studies are taking initiative to give a gentle awareness to the society, public on women security, women empowerment, laws and regulations to protect women's rights etc. The initiative also includes various programmes like skits of 2 minutes which involves poster presentations, slogans mentioning various acts existing for women. It also has information on people working for women empowerment and social welfare. Students have also prepared poems for recitation, speech as well as street play.

For the above mentioned, we request you to allow us to arrange the programs in the open space in-front of the Prerna Bhavan.

We are looking forward to your confirmation and arrival to honor the event.

'Solidarity and Empowerment'
Student Initiated programme on Nirbhaya Day

The Department of Media and Communication studies organized "Solidarity and Empowerment", with respect to December 16 considered as Nirbhaya Day on 20th December 2022. The unfortunate event that led to a reminder of women's protection and security in society has us considering the level of awareness needed. On December 16, we pay tribute and solidarity to victims who have been subjected to molestation.

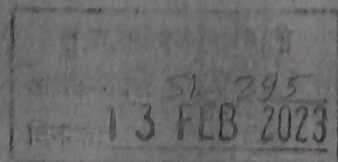

Department of Media and Communication Studies, Tuljaram Chaturchand College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Baramati hosted an awareness programme on the circumstances of Nirbhaya Day on 20th December 2022. We were honored to have Amrita Bhoite, Police officer and Chief of Nirbhaya Pathak in Baramati as chief guest.

The students of Media and Communication Studies took initiative to give a gentle awareness to the society, public on women security, women empowerment, laws and regulations to protect women's rights etc. The initiative also included various programmes like skits of 2 minutes which involved poster presentations, slogans mentioning various acts existing for women. It also has information on people working for women empowerment and social welfare. Students have also prepared poems for recitation, speech as well as street play.

The programme started at 11 AM arranging an open mic and dais near Jeev Raj hall in front of the commerce building. Students eagerly attended the scheduled events as they not just showed curiosity but also keen interest in understanding the laws and acts in the constitution for protecting women. An innovative idea called Untold stories were also implemented on Nirbhaya Day. Students were asked to write stories, issues they face or any particular incident and drop in the boxes made as Untold Story boxes. They can either disclose their identity or keep it anonymous. Social Media campaigns were also run in the department instagram page which got good feedback.

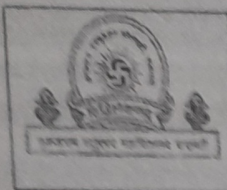

Vice Principal Prof. Seema Naik Gosawi, Asst Prof. Rahul Chaudhari, HoD of Media and Communication Studies department, Asst Prof. Ranjeet Pandit, Asst. Prof. Rutuja Agam was on the dais. Asst Prof. Gayathri Nandhakumar coordinated the event.
